Business Meetings & Training

The Old Fishing Room is a recently converted brick and Flint Meeting and Educational Room. It is bright and airy and can be set up in a formal style for meetings and training, or informally depending on your needs. Outside space for training is also available if required.

We charge competitive rates inclusive of power point projector and white board, with no hidden extras.

Maximum seating capacity 15-20 depending upon layout. Disabled access and toilet facilities.

There is a picnic area to make the most of the rural surroundings.

Refreshments can be provided on arrival and/or prior to departure or during a session and a light lunch can be provided by prior arrangement at an extra cost.

The Old Fishing Room has ample free parking and is located within easy reach of all major transport links including the M27.

Education

Use of the Old Fishing Room is completely free for those conducting environmental educational access visits to Wintershill Farm.

This can include visits by students from year 1 up to postgraduate level, as well as other groups or societies with an interest in the natural environment.

Visits can be tailored to your specific curriculum requirements by a CEVAS trained leader and can include tours of all parts of the farms. A farm facts' information leaflet and teachers' pack are available.

For more information regarding educational access visits please contact Alison Cook on: 01489 860380/ 07979 821470 email: Alison@wintershillfarm.f9.co.uk

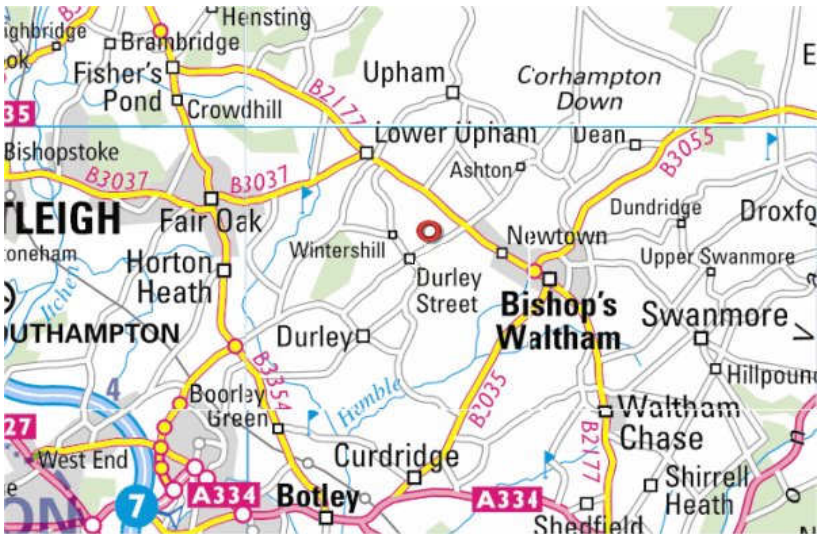

Special thanks are to be extended to Natural England without whose funding and support the provision of this facility would not have been possible.
